INSURANCE

Some agents say "The Best Companies," others "The Strongest" and still others "The Largest Companies." I simply say

JOHN W. DILLON, Agent,

Representing $465,490,117.39 assets as per annual statement of companies represented in this agency on January 1, 1903. That tells the whole story. Call and investigate. No risk too large, none too small.

CHEAPER GAS FOR BARRE

The Gas Company started out to furnish gas to its customers for all domestic purposes at a price of $1.50 per one thousand cubic feet, with a discount of 25 cents per one thousand feet on all bills that are paid by the 10th of each month for gas consumed the previous month.

The Company adopted the policy from its start to reduce the price of gas as the increase of its business would permit, and in accordance with this policy, and of the generous support given by the citizens, we wish to announce that on and after June 1st, 1905, and until further notice, the price of gas for the ordinary consumer will be reduced 10 cents per one thousand feet, making the net price $1.15 per one thousand feet if the bills are paid by the 10th of each month for all gas consumed the previous month, and for those consuming gas in large quantities the following graduated scale has been adopted, and the discounts are made from the established price of $1.50 per one thousand cubic feet:

Any amt. up to and including 5000 cub. ft. per month, discount 35c, net price $1.15
Over 5000 up to and including 10000 cub. ft. per month, discount 40c, net price 1.10
Over 10000 up to and including 15000 cub. ft. per month, discount 45c, net price 1.05
Over 15000 up to and including 20000 cub. ft. per month, discount 50c, net price 1.00
Over 20000 up to and including 25000 cub. ft. per month, discount 55c, net price .95
Over 25000 up to and including 30000 cub. ft. per month, discount 60c, net price .90
Over 30000 up to and including 35000 cub. ft. per month, discount 65c, net price .85

And the Company wish further to announce that after June 1st, 1905, all bills that are not paid by the 10th of the month for all gas used during the previous month will be collected at the established price of $1.50 per one thousand cubic feet.

There is no city anywhere the size of Barre, and but very few larger cities in New England, that sell gas at so low a rate.

Dr. Edward G. Spaulding of the class of '94, University of Vermont, who after studying at Columbia and Bonn Universities for some time, and for the last five years connected with the New York College, has recently accepted a call to Princeton University as assistant professor of philosophy.

It has been decided by the citizens of Jericho Center to hold another all day and evening Fourth of July celebration, similar to one held here last year. At a meeting of all those interested, held at the parish house last Monday night, there was a large and enthusiastic attendance, and various committees were appointed to go ahead with the preparations.

Jerome Thornton of Brownington Center has a fox hound which in giving chase to a fox recently, ran it into a hole. In digging after the fox a stone caved in behind the dog, stopping the return passage, and the dog, it is thought, remained entrapped ten days, until by some means the hound freed herself and went home a mere skeleton.

At the annual meeting of the St. Bernard Fishing Club the officers elected were: President, W. W. Henry; vice president, Gen. F. G. Butterfield of Derby; secretary, J. G. Greene of Montpelier. Mr. Greene, Fred Chase, of Leon Lake, N. Y., and Auditor F. A. Howland of Montpelier comprise the board of directors. Homer L. Bosworth of Springfield, Mass., was re-elected treasurer but resigned.

While harrowing recently on his father's farm at Well River, William Eastman saw a bird suddenly rise from one of the furrows and fly straight up two hundred feet, singing as it soared. Then it turned and flew down for half the distance, dropping the remainder. Further investigation revealed a number of the birds and proved them to be prairie horned larks, a new comer to that section and a bird found at only a few stations in Vermont.

The sail yacht Extra Wet, which is designed on the Lark pattern, earned its title on Lake Champlain Thursday in a most astonishing manner. Three young men were sailing inside the breakwater and attempted to turn sharply against the wind. Instead of making a graceful curve she turned bottom side up and the surprised occupants clambered hurriedly on the high side of the craft. A boat hand on Alvaro Adair's yacht Sandolphin was an interesting spectator and with a small boat rowed them back to the club house. The Extra Wet was towed to its house and dried.

Fined for Cruelty to Animals.

Robert Beebe of Poulney was arraigned at that place June 5 on the charge of abusing a horse and was fined $10 and costs, amounting in all to $27.64. According to Human Officer W. W. Tower, who had been working in the case for some time, Beebe hired a horse at a Poulney stable May 13 and drove to Whitehall, N. Y., and back to Fair Haven. When seen on "Scotch hill," near Griffith's mill, he was beating the horse in an unmerciful manner, and when the employees of the mill rushed out he jumped from the wagon and escaped. The horse fell from exhaustion and Dr. F. J. Deland of Fair Haven, a veterinary surgeon, was summoned and cured for the animal.

Burlington City Loses.

Judgment was entered by Justice A. V. Spaulding Friday in the case of Dr. Clifford A. Pease vs. the city of Burlington for the plaintiff to recover $131.20 and costs of $3.43. The city made no appearance and judgment was by default. Cowles and Moulton appeared for Dr. Pease.

The amount sued for represents fees for attending cases of diphtheria at the Providence Orphan Asylum in 1903 when the building was quarantined. The city has not exactly refused to pay the bill but they have neglected to do so.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide is in Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vipers may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Brothers in a Quarrel.

The quarrel between the Place brothers which was aired in the trial of Kilian Place for arson at the March term of Chittenden county court took a new turn Friday when Kilian filed a suit in Chittenden county court through his attorneys, R. E. Brown and J. J. Eurlight, against Giles, charging him with trespass and claiming $500 damages. The events which compose the alleged trespass took place on the night when the arson was said to have been committed.

Giles Place was the complainant against his brother Kilian. He said he came to his house and drank freely of hard cider which affected him. Giles claimed that he was obliged to refuse to give Kilian any more cider, and had to put him out when he became quarrelsome. He said Kilian made threats against him, and later in the evening the barn was burned. The jury brought in a verdict, however, that Kilian was not guilty of burning the barn and he was discharged.

The suit brought Friday is based on the same quarrel. Kilian claims he was assaulted and beaten that night over the head and various parts of the body by Giles, who used his fists and a stick. He suffered much from the wounds, he claims, and was put to expense for medical attendance and could not work for two weeks. He, therefore, claims $500 damages for trespass.

A charge of perjury is hanging over Rollin Place, still another brother, who testified one way at the trial of Kilian in county court and another at the preliminary hearing. All the brothers live in Hinesburg.

The C. J. Bell Pomona Grange, No. 13, composed of the local Granges at Cornwall, Middlebury, Danmore of Salisbury, Neshobe of Brandon, Bridport, Shoreham and Grand View of Addison, met in the town hall, Middlebury, Friday. Gov. C. J. Bell, master of the grange, presided and R. B. Galusha also of the state grange, was present as lecturer. The session opened with music, after which Governor Bell and Lecturer Galusha made brief remarks. Discussion then occurred on the following questions: "What Can We Do to Build Up a Higher Manhood and Womanhood Among Ourselves?" Speakers: Cora L. Beach, Salisbury; Mrs. A. N. McQuivey, Middlebury; L. L. Hamblin, Cornwall, and Miss Dayton Moore, Brandon.

Michael Kane, eighteen years old, is in jail at Bennington in default of $5,000 bail, pending a hearing Saturday. The charge is assault upon two girls under sixteen years old, three weeks ago. Kane had always borne an excellent reputation.

Birds and Gray Squirrels.

Those who have watched say that birds do not nest freely in premises haunted by the gray squirrels which have been half domesticated. Doubtless the squirrel has a tooth for eggs, if not young birds, and the fraternity knows it.

Motoring Sportsmen.

Americans have invented a new form of sport, says the Motoring Illustrated. They attend their big private chicken, quail, partridge and grouse shoots on motor cars. The cars are run into fields whose crops have been harvested and on solid tires run after the dogs across prairie and farm land.

This Year For Big Crops.

Uncle Billy Sumpter, who lives near Madison, Mo., looks for big crops this year, says the Kansas City Journal. He bases his expectations on the No. 5. He says that big crops were raised in '55, '56, '73, '85 and '93, and now it is 1905's turn.
